

Today we celebrate the Ascension of the Lord into heaven. While Luke’s gospel and the Acts of the Apostles (both authored by Luke) tell of the end of the 40 days of the Resurrected Jesus to the disciples, the faith dimension of this feast is about the exaltation of Jesus in heaven, present now in his glorified body, with God the Father. The movements of the Paschal Mystery are the suffering, death, resurrection, exaltation of Christ, and the sending of the Holy Spirit. When we say that Christ is exalted in glory, we use the phrase “at the right hand of the Father.” The one sitting at the right hand of the king was one who was favored in a special way. Jesus, because he is divine and one with the Father and the Holy Spirit, is now with the Father in his glorified body. Jesus, in his divinity, is always with the Father, yet now, in his glorified humanity, he is exalted in heaven in a new way. Jesus’ humanity has become a vessel for the outpouring of the Spirit, and now that Jesus returns to the Father, he can give the Holy Spirit to his followers. This is a part of the mystery of God’s plan. Jesus’ obedience to God the Father’s will reveals itself as the path to glory.
