SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

St. Gregory Nazianzus, 4th century, gave us a Greek word to describe the overflowing love and inner life of the Trinity: perichoresis (per-i-khō-rē-sis). The Greek theologians of this time were hunting for a word that would describe the dynamic nature, the “dancing” of the persons in the Trinity, as their lives unfold before each other. Perichoresis is a Greek term that is used to describe the relationship between each person of the Trinity. It derives from peri (around) and choreis (from choreography, to dance). So perichoresis means something like “moving around,” “procession around,” or envelopment. God’s love is so abundant that it cannot remain still. When Jesus says, “I am in my Father, and my Father is in me,” he is revealing something about how the persons of the Trinity indwell in each other. They are distinct persons yet at the same time a unity. There is a mutual indwelling in love. This one-yet-triune God — Father, Son, and Holy Spirit — comes to indwell in our souls, and so bring us into union in love.

This summer, from mid-June to mid-August, Bishop Burbidge is assigning newly ordained transitional Deacon Michael Folmar, a seminarian, to All Saints Parish. This is part of the summer component of the seminary formation program. Please remember him in your prayers and welcome him once he joins us.
