

SACRED MUSIC AT ALL SAINTS CONCERT SERIES

presents

The fifth anniversary season concludes with an ensemble new to our series. Trio Sirènes comprised of flutist Marcia Kämper, violist Karin Brown and harpist Jacqueline Pollauf, enjoys pushing boundaries and highlighting the diverse sonic possibilities of their wind, string, and percussion instruments. With performers drawn from the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra, Trio Sirènes seeks to create innovative programs by presenting standard repertoire, works by contemporary composers, and transcriptions from earlier time periods.

All are welcome.

Free admission and plenty of free parking.

A free-will offering will be taken to off-set the cost of this and future performances.

All Saints is located about a half mile from many shops and restaurants in Old Town Manassas.
